Introduction

The purpose of this booklet is to describe the nomination and selection process for the position of Director on the Orthopaedic Nurses Certification Board (ONCB).

General information about ONCB also is provided.

About ONCB

ONCB was established in 1986 to promote the highest standards of orthopaedic nursing practice through the development, implementation, and coordination of all aspects of certification. ONCB was incorporated in the State of New Jersey in December 11, 1986, as a Non-Profit Corporation under Section 501c (6).

Although ONCB was founded by the National Association of Orthopaedic Nurses (NAON), ONCB is independent in matters of governance and finance, and has sole responsibility for management of its certification programs. While ONCB supports NAON in its development and implementation of educational activities related to the certification of orthopaedic nurses, ONCB's focus remains on the process of certification for orthopaedic nurses. Directors work with the ONCB Test Committee and contracted testing vendor to ensure the validity, reliability, and credibility of the certification examinations. The Board's commitment to orthopaedic nursing excellence assures the administration of quality certification examinations.

ONCB has adopted the definition offered by the American Board of Nursing Specialties:

Certification is the formal recognition of the specialized knowledge, skills, and experience demonstrated by the achievement of standards identified by a nursing specialty to promote optimal health outcomes (ABNS, 2003. Retrieved from <http://nursingcertification.org/questions.html>).

Currently ONCB offers two active certification credentials earned by testing for nurses caring for patients with musculoskeletal diagnosis:

ONC® - basic credential for registered nurses

ONP-C® - advanced practice, value-added credential for nurse practitioners

The ONC-A™ is an advanced credential for nurses prepared with a graduate degree in nursing or an allied discipline. Complete information about eligibility is available on the ONCB web site.

The OCNS-C® credential was retired in December 2014 and testing is no longer offered. However, clinical nurse specialists who earned the credential before its retirement may recertify by continuing education to retain this certification.

Over 6500 RNs and APNs hold one of the ONCB credentials as Board-certified orthopaedic nurses.

The ONC and ONP-C programs are accredited by the Accreditation Board for Specialty Nursing Certification (ABSNC). ABSNC is the only body that specifically accredits nursing certification programs. Accreditation demonstrates the ONC and ONP-C programs have met 18 rigorous standards to ensure their psychometric soundness and basis in a recognized nursing specialty. The ABSNC standards are benchmarks for quality in the certification industry.

Mission, Vision, Core Beliefs

Mission

ONCB improves musculoskeletal health by providing orthopaedic nurses with certifications that promote their professional development and advance the practice of orthopaedic nursing.

Vision

Orthopaedic nursing certification is the standard of knowledge and excellence in musculoskeletal health care.

Core Beliefs

ONCB's core beliefs are the essential and enduring tenets that guide our work and relationships with our patients and with each other. They are not to be compromised for financial gain or short-term expediency.

- ❖ Nurses achieve their fullest potential when they feel valued and recognized.
- ❖ Optimal performance occurs when decisions integrate evidence, intuition, and innovation.
- ❖ An environment of respectful collaboration encourages diversity of thought and fosters open, honest communication.
- ❖ Certification is a powerful vehicle for personal and professional transformation.

Governance

A 12-member Board of Directors governs ONCB. The Board is comprised of 11 RNs and 1 Public Member who represents the voice of the health care consumer. RN members include 7 Directors and 4 ex-officio non-voting members (Recertification Committee Chair, Testing Committee Chair, Exam Preparation Committee Chair, Executive Director). The NAON President or designee serves as a liaison to the ONCB. The ONCB Board of Directors elects all its Directors and Public Members.

Management Services

The ONCB Executive Director Dottie Roberts, EdD, MSN, MACI, RN, OCNS-C®, CMSRN, CNE, is independently contracted by ONCB as staff executive. Her current contract extends through December 31, 2020.

Administrative support services are provided by SmithBucklin Corporation (Chicago, IL). Operations Coordinator Robin Rosenstein addresses day-to-day operations under the supervision of the Executive Director. Additional services obtained through SmithBucklin include accounting and conference planning. Marketing services also are available from SmithBucklin but are not included in the support services contract.

Examination Development

ONC® and ONP-C® examinations are written and reviewed by committees/task forces of respective credential holders. With representatives of each credential, the Test Committee has general oversight of examination development and maintenance activities. An orthopaedic-certified nurse is selected as Chair by the Board with recommendation from the previous Chair.

Scantron (formerly Castle Worldwide) in Morrisville, NC, is the contracted test vendor for ONCB's examinations. Item writing activities are conducted every 2 years (odd-numbered years) with supervision by test specialists and a Scantron psychometrician.

In addition, psychometricians guide an ONCB task force of certified nurses through the completion of a job analysis every 5 years. The goal of this survey is to identify current role responsibilities of orthopaedic nurses and the musculoskeletal condition commonly seen in their patients. Data are used to review and recommend possible revisions to the specifications (blueprint) for each examination. The culminating process of the job analysis is completion of a passing point study by the task force, with recommendations to the Board concerning an appropriate passing score for each examination.

Certification Maintenance

Each credential is awarded for a 5-year period. Recertification is required to retain the credential, either through continuing education or testing. The Recertification Committee has general oversight of the recertification process, including conduct of audits for every 10th application. Committee members also review every application for credential reactivation (one-time option for credential expired in previous 2 years).

Volunteer Benefits

As an ONCB volunteer at the national level, you are able to contribute uniquely to the development of the ONC® and ONP-C® programs that recognize and promote excellence in orthopaedic nursing practice. Very importantly, you are encouraging the best possible care for orthopaedic patients and their families.

- In addition, you are able to:
- give back to the orthopaedic nursing specialty and the nursing profession.
  - hear the voice of orthopaedic patients and their families through the ONCB Public Member.
  - ensure the highest standards of orthopaedic nursing knowledge among credential holders.
  - influence national standards and practice.
  - advocate for excellence in orthopaedic nursing practice beyond your immediate work setting.
  - grow professionally in new areas.
  - network nationally with nursing colleagues beyond your own work setting.
  - be recognized as a national leader within your profession.
  - collaborate with leaders of other national organizations in advancing the profession and nursing certification across specialties.

Process for Nomination and Election

Nomination Process

In September 2019, a call for Director nominations will be posted on the ONCB web site (www.oncb.org). The call also will be publicized through NAON and ONCB media (e.g., NAON News) through December 2019 issues.

ONCB staff refers all interested certificants to the online booklet 2020 Application for Director. If interested in pursuing nomination, the certificant must submit the required documentation described in this booklet. All application materials must be received in the ONCB office no later than December 31, 2019. Late or incomplete applications will be automatically disqualified from consideration.

One Director position will be filled in 2020 for 3-year terms beginning May 2020. Director vacancies may not occur every year. The number of vacancies also may vary, depending on term rotation of the sitting Directors.

Election Process and Timeline

All submitted materials are reviewed for completeness by the ONCB Executive Director. Applications from qualified certificants will be forwarded to the Board of Directors by January 15. A telephone interview will be scheduled with all qualified applicants between January 15 and February 15, 2020. One ONCB Director will facilitate the interview, but all Board members will be present or will listen to the recorded interview on the ONCB conference line in order to score each nominee.

ONCB members will schedule a conference call no later than March 1, 2020, to review applications and interview results. Nominees will be notified by the ONCB President of the Board's selection.

The newly elected Director will be expected to attend the ONCB meeting held at the conclusion of NAON Congress (Wednesday, June 3, 2020) in Pittsburgh, PA. Meeting attendance is the first step in the orientation process. ONCB will reimburse coach airfare, ground transportation, and two nights of hotel (Congress promotional rate or less). ONCB also will provide per diem for travel days of $75 each ($150 maximum) upon submission of receipts. Receipts are required for all expenses of $25 or more.

A Board mentor will be assigned to the newly elected Directors, and a structured orientation period will occur over summer 2020. The fall 2020 Board meeting will be scheduled in mid-October; dates should be confirmed by May 2020.

Commitments

Role Clarity

Role Description – ONCB Member (ONCB Policy 4d) and ONCB Director Realities of Position Statement are included in the Appendices section of this booklet to describe commitments required by the ONCB Director. Nominees are encouraged to contact ONCB (888-561-6622, oncb@oncb.org) or ask questions during the telephone interview to clarify any aspect of role responsibilities.

The term of office for ONCB Directors is 3 years. If a Director wishes to apply for a second 3-year term, he or she will be evaluated by other Board members. The Director's self-evaluation also will be considered in the Board's decision to offer a second term.

Conflict of Interest & Confidentiality

Every volunteer is required to sign the Confidentiality, Conflict of Interest, and Unauthorized Representation Statement (ONCB Policy 5k-A) annually during service with ONCB. Please read this statement carefully (see Appendices section) to ensure you will not be in a position of conflict of interest if elected as Director of the ONCB. If you have any questions, please call the ONCB (888-561-6622). You will be required to sign this document if elected to serve ONCB.

Because of their role in approving ONC® and ONP-C® test specifications and developing policies related to these certification programs, ONCB members are not eligible to recertify by examination during their tenure on the Board and for 2 years following that term. Additional information about these requirements will be provided to the newly elected Director.

Competencies and Qualifications

ONCB uses a competency-based model to identify qualified Directors. This process includes behavioral interviewing, which allows exploration of each nominee's ability to demonstrate critical behaviors. It also expands the Board's ability to evaluate candidates beyond the information in a simple resume.

Competencies and Definitions

Board member competencies are considered in the followed categories:

Universal competencies

Personal qualifications required of all Board members

Collective competencies

Should be present in the Board as a whole and therefore be strong attributes of one or more (but not necessarily all) members

Desirable Competencies

Would be an asset to the Board at the present time and should be considered in recruitment, given current strategic priorities and Board needs

Universal competencies

include accountability, strategic orientation, and leadership. Each of these has defined elements. The ONCB competencies document is included in the Appendices section of this booklet. Interview questions will specifically assess the abilities in the universal competencies.

Application Process

All application materials must be received in the ONCB office no later than December 31, 2019. Late or incomplete applications will be automatically disqualified from consideration.

Letters of Recommendation

Each Director nominee must submit two recommendations from professional colleagues with knowledge of his or her leadership abilities and service experience; one should be from a supervisor if the nominee is not self-employed. A template for letters of recommendation is provided in the Appendices section of this booklet. This process assists the Board in evaluating the nominee's abilities relative to ONCB's mission and values.

Director Nominee Statement

Each Director nominee must submit a personal statement based on the template included in the Appendices section of this booklet. This process assists the Board in evaluating the nominee's abilities relative to ONCB's mission, vision, and values.

The Application is included in the Appendices section of this booklet. Please include all materials requested on the checklist.
